

Manufacturing & Depot Center

SERVICES

- Assembly (Box Build)
- Cabling / Wire Harness
- Electronic Manufacturing
- Mechanical Manufacturing
- Configuration Management
- ISO 9001 Quality Processes
- U.S. Navy 9090-310 Alteration Installation Team(AIT) certification
- Shipboard cableway inspection certification

Mikros Systems' Manufacturing and Depot (M&D) Center in Largo Florida has been manufacturing high-reliability electronic systems for DoD and other customers for the past ten years. We now offer build to print, box build, and testing services to third-party customers. Our fully staffed and certified facility provides the following:

KEY OFFERINGS

- Complete kitting, assembly and testing services
- Fully qualified facility and personnel
- Flexible scheduling to accommodate rush jobs
- Surge capability for cooperative manufacturing
- Low cycle time and turnaround
- Turnkey solutions
- Technical capabilities:
 - Box build
 - Cable assembly
 - PCB rework/repair
 - Surface mount/through-hole/mixed technology
 - Mechanical assemblies/subassemblies

QUALITY

Mikros Systems has an established Quality Management System (QMS) which complies with American National Standards Institute (ANSI) ISO 9001:2015 and Naval Sea Systems Command (NAVSEA) Standard Item 009-04. Our M&D Center is also certified for design, development, manufacture, distribution, and support of electronic systems for military and commercial applications and products. Mikros personnel are certified in Association Connecting Electronics Industries J-STD-001, IPC-A-600, IPC-A-610, IPC-WHAA-A-620, and IPC-7711/7721 as well as Lean Six Sigma certifications.

Mikros Systems has been a successful DoD Small Business Innovator since the 1990s.

WE DO TECHNOLOGY TRANSITION FROM CONCEPT TO DELIVERY!