Less Paperwork. More Grants.

Achieve Smarter Grants Mangement

THE CHALLENGE

Federal agency program managers (PMs) overseeing the grants management lifecycle face growing challenges from multiple directions.

Agency PMs need a simpler, automated and user-friendly grants solution for submitting and tracking grant applications. Legacy processes can create challenges leaving PMs with a need for:

- Cost-effective tools to automate and streamline the process
- Data analytics to validate decisions, as budgets face heavy scrutiny and agencies must be ready to share and defend outcomes
- Increased return on investment and tangible ways to show and continuously improve it
- Cloud-based capabilities to meet evolving modernization milestones and easily access and share data as needed

THE SOLUTION

Noblis Run*Grants*™ automates the process of grants management to empower users and optimize results.

Noblis' grants solution gives managers and agency leadership more time to dive deep into the insight of every aspect of the grants process for better awareness and decision making. Noblis' Run*Grants* is:

- Automated – Delivers speed and accuracy improvements while reducing the need for management intervention.
- Standards-Based – Consolidates data for greater interoperability and support for modernization goals.
- Flexible – A low-code framework to easily customize for workflows, reports and functionality that matches each agency's unique environment.
- Data Driven – Gives managers and agency leadership deep insight into every aspect of the grants process for better awareness and decision making.
- Cost-Effective – Software-as-a-Service model means predictable costs, regular maintenance and improvements that keep up with evolving demands and a streamlined acquisition process.

FOR MORE THAN A DECADE, NOBLIS HAS BEEN HELPING TO AUTOMATE THE FEDERAL GRANTS LIFECYCLE
This expertise translates to a cloud-based solution designed to meet the needs of all stakeholders—grantees, processors, reviewers, managers and leadership. What's more, Noblis' Run*Grants* solution empowers agencies to collect, evaluate and award grants applications using an automated, streamlined process based on data to show the value and priority for every grant.

Noblis' Run*Grants* solution delivers faster process automation across the grants management lifecycle from application and submission to evaluation and selection.

Capabilities that Fit Your Agency and Mission Needs

As the demands on grants programs grow, agencies must balance expectations to continuously improve speed, accountability, user experience and, of course, ongoing costs. To help with this, and empower users and optimize results, Noblis has brought a fresh new approach to grants management.

Accelerate the Lifecycle

Optimize efficiency by automating workflow within a single comprehensive solution.

- Streamline the Workflow - From collection to reporting with custom templates, alerts and notifications that drive new levels of efficiency—freeing up managers to focus on more strategic tasks.
- Collaborative Tools - Brings the right data, workflow and collaboration tools together in one place.
- Simplifies with Modern UX - Equips grant managers and reviewers with intuitive user experience backed by human-centered, responsive design that maximizes productivity from any device.

Empower Better Decisions and Unlock Critical insights

Reach new levels of visibility at every stage of the process.

- Power Smarter Selection - Delivers powerful evaluation analytics to help reviewers quickly prioritize proposals and choose the best projects to pursue.
- Transform Reporting - Activates advanced measurement analytics and visualization tools to simplify reporting and maximize transparency in advance of strategic meetings, milestones and deadlines.

Built For Federal and Matched for the Mission

Exceed federal compliance, security and classification requirements with flexibility and scalability.

- Secure Cloud-Based Grants Management - Adaptable to all federal clients and environments (on premise, in the cloud or classified) with the FedRAMP-compliant Noblis platform.
- Permissions Controlled - Assign role-based permissions that meet specific project-level needs while abiding by agency or department level Zero-Trust, security requirements. Enable common access card, personal identity verification and 2-factor authentication.

Improve and Enhance the Application Process

Extend efficiency and insight for applicants, reviewers and awardees.

- Responsive Navigation - Create a simplified navigation experience for users with easy, intuitive responsive design.
- Configurable Checklists - Grantees clean up applications with checklists for an organized, customizable workflow-based system to gather information and enable collaboration.
- Clarify Tracking - Provide clarity of status at each step with transparency and application support from submission to execution and enable greater grantee success.
